“ Even though I rarely had the chance to get together with him, I thoroughly enjoyed seeing him. ĩ½He was one person, when I knew I would get the chance to see him, I looked forward to it. ĩ½From the way he warmly greeted you to the way he would pick an argument with his brother just to get him worked up, being in his presence just gave you a wonderful feeling. ĩ½He will be truly missed as a husband, son, brother, uncle and friend. ĩ½Kelly/Mrs. Hammond/John/Becky/Liz to you all I would like to give you my condolences for your loss. ĩ½Hopefully, ĩ½all the love and support of family and friends will help ease your pain. ĩ½Sorry for not being able to be there at this time of your loss.##imported-begin##Tom Regnier##imported-end##

“ Bobby Boyd,  Wow. Are we really that old? Is age even a question? Where did the years go?  I sit here at the TV station on the weekends going over the obits back home HOPING I don't see anyone I know, yet pouring over every word of everything I see of anyone I do know just to keep my mind in the present about the past (the MS does funny things to a person when his world and ability to move about are restricted) so I read of your departure with great sadness.  I still say that my best days (and some of my best memories) come from the time(s) when we were kids spending the privelages of youth in and around the Sportsmans Club. The beach, the swimming, the horseplay; THE FUN! I wouldn't trade 'em for gold!  Bye-bye Bobby. You're movin' on out ahead of us. Keep a scouts' eye out for a good gathering spot for that great-big gig on the dark-side of the moon. We'll all get togethet thete when the show is over. 'Till then, luv&hugs to Mom and Pop and the rest. God rest old friend.  Mitch Booth###imported-begin##Mitch Booth###imported-end##

“ The phrase is used often, but Bobby was truly "one of a kind." The way he'd saunter into a room, his grin, his phrases: "Ya know my friend . . ." And, the way he'd shout at drivers in the neighborhood to slow down because there were kids playing. The "mayor of Lindsay street" will be deeply missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with Kelly and the entire family.##imported-begin##Andy & Meredith Purcell##imported-end##
