“ Uncle Bob - he was the handsome dude. Always smiling just like Grandpa Emley. Many fond memories as a child and even now as I am a bit older. Family holidays were the best! Visiting them while they lived in Elmhurst and being in my cousin Vicki's wedding - me and Johnny, what a pair. Uncle Bob you always had time to listen and oh how I loved your hugs and kisses. I was so happy that Dink and Louie were able to bring you and Aunt Bev to Lindas so you could meet Steve. Oh how I Love you and will miss you Uncle Bob. My thoughts are always with you Aunt Bev and know that Uncle Bob is in a better place without any more pain. To my cousins Dink, Vicki and Johnny too I was so sad for your loss and I'd sure love to give you all a big kiss and hug, as we will, and talk of our memories. Love You ALL. “ Daddy, I miss you so much already even though I KNOW you are in a better place. I have such wonderful memories - the fantastic stories you'd tell Vicki and me when we were waiting in the car while mom was selling cards, your wonderful crooning voice, your whistling, playing the harmonica, showing us your yo-yo tricks and showing the kids how to shoot marbles. I marveled at how you could build everything; garages, patios, fences, finishing basements and oh how you could paint. You were always such a talented hard worker and you could be so funny. I always loved you so much and I am proud to be your daughter. Toodles for now Daddy. See you in my dreams. Your daughter, Georgia Rae###imported-end##

“ Uncle Bob and Aunt Bev are both my Godparents. Through the years, it was always fun being with them. Uncle Bob always had a smile to share with all of us. I can remember Uncle Bob swimming in the pool at my home in Fort Wayne. He and my Dad would love to see who could do the best dives. Now, these two brothers are together in Heaven. The love, laughter and the good times we all shared will stay in our hearts forever. Sending love and sympathy to Aunt Bev and family.##imported-begin##John & Gail##imported-end##

“ We will forever remember the wonderful times we had with Uncle Bob, Aunt Bev and family over the years. When Grandma and Grandpa Emley lived in Indiana, they would announce "Bob's are coming next week". We then anticipated the fun times and laughter that would come our way. Mark and I still vividly recall the lovely day we spent in Florida with Bob and Bev at their home. The best part was sitting on the patio, chatting and enjoying their company, as well as their sweet pets, Ariel and Kitty Babe. Sympathy and Love to all, Mark and Donna ##imported-begin##Donna and Mark##imported-end##
