“ Bob was a great friend and neighbor. Our best memories of Bob are the nights we spent with him and Sandy sitting on the deck watching the river and enjoying a fire. Frank and I will miss his friendship.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Bob at Bunge for many years. Bob was one of nicest people I have ever met. He was always kind, encouraging and had always shared his warm smile. We shared a laugh and connection when he told me many years ago that that his daughter and I not only shared the same name but also the same birthday (although different years). Although I only got the chance to see Bob from time to time in recent years at various picnics and parties at my brother's home (Brian Scheppler)- our friendship and connection has always been the same and a friendship that I cherished, and always will. I will miss you Bob & I thank you for the friendship we shared. My thoughts and prayers go out to your loving family!
