“ Bobby lived a half block down from my family back in 60s-70s (his family lived on S. 6th Ave), and I recall him being a happy friendly guy. He was a little older than me, but I recall he was friends with my older siblings.

“ Played a lot of basketball with Bobby at the Washington Grade School playground, and although he was younger and smaller than most of us he played hard and was very competitive. The school and court are long gone, and now sadly so is Bobby, RIP.
