“ We will miss Bob so much. ĩ½He truly was a member of our family. He was Grandpa's best friend and we all loved to hear them try to top each other stories. ĩ½We were blessed that he and Barb were always there for the family.

Although it is difficult to let him go from this life, we know that he is with our Dad/Grandpa. ĩ½They will watch over us until we all meet again.

We send Barb and the family all our strength & love.##imported-begin##LaDonna &Trevor ĩ½Duff##imported-end##

“ *So you're off and exploring places that WE can't go to yet, eh? Well, scout it over good Bob, and we'll all catch up with you later. You always had great stories from your adventures. I know its been some years, but I've thought of you often over the years, reflecting on my youth in the hey-day of the '70s. The MS leaves me stuck with little else but my memories,so the occasional thought of the man who always reminded me and Oscar of Mr. Warmth himself (Don Rickles) has always brought a smile to my face.

See you in the great beyond Bob. You WILL be missed! So sorry for your loss Barb. Hugs all around. Take care.
