“ Dear Casey and Lisa:

At times like this words can never say what we would really like them to. Please know that my thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time. Only time will heal the pain and sorrow you are feeling today ~ hopefully your tomorrows will soon be filled with happy memories of the time you spent with your father and you will be able to take comfort in knowing that he is at peace. We can never know why sad things happen when they do, but know that your love and the many recollections of fun-filled times with your father will outlast the hurt you feel today. There is a very special place in our hearts where love lives and if I've learned anything throughout the years, it's that those we love never really ever leave us. The people we truly cherish will always live in our hearts and memories. Your father will never be forgotten ~ he will always be with you and will be a special part of your lives.

With my sincere sympathy,
Bev

“ Wed. 6-10-09 Just got back from 3 weeks in Texas with family & read on the Internet about your brother, Bob. I am sorry to see that news and you have my sympathy, dear, and will be thinking of all of you at this time. Keep the good memories in your thoughts and it will be much easier and the Good Lord will give you the strength you need at this time. God bless.

“ Dear Casey and Beth,
We are so sorry about your Dad's death. We have known your Dad for 25 years and really enjoyed being his friend. He had such a great sense of humor and we had alot of fun together over the years. We will miss him alot. You and your families are in our thoughts and prayers. He loved you kids so much. He talked about you constantly. He was very, very proud of both of you. Hopefully time will ease your pain.

“ I was blessed to be loved by Bob. He gave me the greatest gifts of all, Elizabeth Marie and Casey LaVern. He was the greatest father. He truly lived everyday with them as his first and last thoughts. He taught them with his love, laughter, intelligence and patient to be the parents they are today. He glowed with love for them and his grandchildren everytime his eyes saw them (just come look at the pictures). I love you Bob and will miss you all the remaining days of my life.
