“ When we think of Rod, the picture we see is his smile and laughter. ĩ½We were fortunate to be able to spend the holidays with Rod. ĩ½He always came ready to eat and baring one of his famous home made pies. ĩ½He was always happy and ready to play with the kids. ĩ½Sammy loved wrestling with Rod in the middle of the living room floor. ĩ½The holidays will never be the same without him. ĩ½My hope is that everyone continue to think of Rod and share the many stories you have of him with all of us. ĩ½Rod was such a loving man and deserves so much to be remembered. ĩ½###imported-begin###Sherry LaMontagne###imported-end###

“ As Rod's "kid sister" I will never forget how protective he was. ĩ½I was just reminded the other day, by my huband of 13 years, that he stood at our wedding and said: ĩ½"If you ever hurt her, I will kick your butt" (Although he used a different word). ĩ½He was full of life and will forever be. ĩ½Keep his memories alive in the stories you share. ĩ½Never quit sharing those stories!

“ I'm very sorry to hear about Rod. ĩ½He was a good friend to me in high school. ĩ½I always thought he moved with his parents and never even thought to look for him once I got out of the Army. ĩ½I wish I would have now. ĩ½I'm also in the construction business as an Ironworker. ĩ½My deepest sympathies go out to the family. ĩ½I got to know some of you when I would go over to the house when I was in school and you treated me good. ĩ½I'm very sad to see that he's gone.##imported-begin##Greg Finch##imported-end##

“ We knew Rod several years ago. ĩ½He had a great sense of humor and was a friend to everyone who knew him. ĩ½Our sympathy is with your family at this difficult time. ĩ½He will always be remembered with a smile. ĩ½##imported-begin##Patty Haberkorn and Lana Brown##imported-end##
