“ It was with sincere sadness that we learned of Roger's untimely passing. I will always have wonderful childhood memories of running around with Jack and Roger and kids, and feeling like I was at my "other parents" house when I was at Louis and Betty's house. I always felt like Roger was the "tough guy" big brother who was waiting for a chance to beat us up, but as we grew older, I got to know the real Roger, who was a wonderful person, a great friend, a fantastic big brother to Jack, and a great husband and father. Our thoughts and prayers are with our dear friends Jack and Darla, as well as all of Rogers family.##imported-begin##Steve and Debbie Wilder##imported-end##

“ Debbie and family,

Thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

I must say I have some very fond childhood memories playing baseball for Roger's team. It was truly an honor. Know that he will not be forgotten.

Sincerely

“ What Makes A Dad
God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... "DAD!"
Author Unknown
Wish I could be there. ï¿½Big hugs to everyone. ï¿½He was a great man. Sending love and prayers.
