“ It's funny that someone I haven't seen or talked to in close to 30 years left such an impression on me. She was always so nice to me back in the day when Barb & I worked together at Thrif-t-Mart and we hung out together. Cherish the memories and smile. She would want that.

“ I married Rolaine's best buddy, who also happens to be her youngest daughter, Barbara. To Barb, not only was Rolaine a wonderful mother, but a true friend as well. Both avid readers, and devoted annual trekkers to Indiana's Covered Bridge Festival, they thoroughly enjoyed each other's company, had perpetual fun and good times together; with an enormous list of happy memories. They were also always there for each other, providing help whenever and wherever needed.

Rolaine was a devoted wife to her childhood sweetheart, the paragon of a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother; and yes, mother-in-law too! Couldn't ask for anything more.

All who knew her and whose lives were touched by this wonderful lady will miss her deeply and will dearly cherish all the memories. She will never be forgotten!

“ I have known Rolaine since I was 14 years old and am married to one of her wonderful sons. She was very much like a mother to me at a time when I did not have one of my own. She was a very special person in my life and it will never be the same without her in it. I know this will be an impossibly difficult time for the entire family in the coming days and months, but know she loved us all as much if not more than we loved her. She is in a safe and loving place now with her own Mom, Dad and Sister forever.

The patriarch (Paul Sr.) and the siblings would have loved to see you; since Father's Day slipped by as well. Not too late, you know. He can sure use some companionship and conversation until some inner-strength and physical stamina comes back. Getting a flight is easy!! Here's hoping you can talk "his nibs" into it...

“ Rolaine was the best Grandmother in Law anyone could ever ask for! From the time I first met her she welcomed me with open arms. She was an amazing woman and I looked up to her very much! I remember her asking me in the beginning if I was shocked or overwhelmed by the large family I was marrying into and I told her, "nah, my mom is the youngest of 5 and my dad the oldest of 6, so I LOVE IT!" She had such a glow about her when her family was around and loved everyone so much, we are going to miss her something fierce!!!

“ I was so lucky to have had Aunt Rolaine as my Godmother. Every Christmas Eve she would stop in with a special gift for me. I looked forward to that day all year. Coming from a large family with lots of brothers and sisters it made me feel so special cause it was a gift just for me. Aunt Rolaine made me feel so special and she got me the coolest gifts. Sometime she would have even have made me something. I still have the ceramics piece that she painted for me. I also remember the neatest Barbie clothes! I cannot begin to tell you what a special place she has in my heart. I am now happy to be a Godmother as well and I have done the same things for my Godchildren because of what Aunt Rolaine did for me. I miss her already. Anna Roten
