“ Growing up near the Kreissler's was a lot of fun....for a lot of reasons. One of the things I remember however, was how kind and patient Mr. Kreissler was not only with his own children, but any of us who happened to be by...regardless of what we were doing. If he was upset, frustrated or just plain tired, we certainly did not know it. I will always have fond memories of my "neighbors" and of course, will remember Mr. Kreissler with respect and admiration. My warmest regards to the family, Mickey, Tim, Aaron, Beth, Ericka, Kenny and Gina.##imported-begin##Michelle (Brooks) Koppitz##imported-end##

“ Just read about Ron's death - have no idea what happened, but wanted to send our sympathies to you and your family. Ron put down carpet for us several times - he was such a hard worker. Always called him when we needed carpet or sent our friends to him. Nonetheless, we are so sorry and send our sincerest sympathies. We now live in Florida so won't be coming to wake, but wanted to send you a note.

Sincerely, Gary & Sue Hoskins
