“ We are fortunate to have great memories with Ron and Grace. It didn't matter if we were boating, having breakfast after mass, enjoying a cookout or working our butts off putting in his sprinkler system. Ron would always keep us laughing. He had the funniest stories and he never told the same one twice. Jim was either, Jimmy, Beau, or wingman and Ron and I used to critique the restaurants we ate at because of our history in food service. He made us laugh every Sunday when he would cuss like a sailor as soon as we left church. We would do anything for him and Grace. We will miss you big guy. Until we meet again, Darcy and Jim Assemany
