“ Dear Deano & Marty,

We are so sorry to hear of Ronnie's death. ĩ½As you well know, Larry knew him well and I did too. ĩ½In fact, we went camping for the first time with you two and Ronnie & his wife. ĩ½I remember the fun we had.

I also remember the fun he was to be with and all the Ironworker parties we were at with you and Ronnie. ĩ½He was always happy and he will be missed. ĩ½He's in a better place. ĩ½I know that's a cliché, but it's the truth. ĩ½It's the ones left behind who suffer the loss of our loved ones. ĩ½Please know that Larry & I are thinking of you and may God Bless You.##imported-begin##Larry & Genice Bailey##imported-end##

“ I'll miss you, my friend. ĩ½Though we didn't see each other on a regular basis we always picked up the conversation like it had been moments ago. ĩ½I'll remember you each time our birthdays roll around, every time I see a handsome redhead, when I remember my youth and the fun we all had together.

Thank you Diane for the wonderful, loving care you took of my friend. ĩ½He loved you and I love you.##imported-begin##NULL##imported-end##

“ When does our mortality become a reality,

December 27th 2008,when someone to me,us all,seemed unbreakable lost his only battle! Yet fear not for he would not ever

NOT OUR HILLBILLY!!!! If the tables were turned and we lost the fight,He would be ever so greatfull for time well spent with us and memories shared. I will forever be thankful for my memories,without even knowing we put our mark on others lives, how we do this is not a concience effort but we do. Ronnie always knew the golden rule,I won't write it,if you don't know you have already lost!!! Good Buy my friend,I thankyou for you!!!GOD SPEED!!!

“ I heard of Ronnies passing today. I have not seen Ronnie in a while, due to his disease, but I remember him alot growing up, and spending many good times at my grandmothers restaurant, Ryan's Pier in Aroma Park.

He always was a good person, who knew how to make people laugh, and knew how to have a great time and was a good friend to many.

He now is in a better place, and looking down among all of us, smiling, and knowing how many people cared and loved him.

May he rest in Peace. God Bless Ronnie Miller :))##imported-begin##Stephen Cyril Ryan##imported-end##

“ Dearest Brother Ronnie, I am back in Mississippi now and somehow it doesn't feel like home anymore. I miss you but I know that you are with me and will always be. ï¿½
Diane you taught me so much about sacrifice and true love, your strength is inspiring. I will cherish your love and friendship forever. I love and miss you and will always be here for you!
Chad, Jeremy and Tashina, Justin and Kara, I love you all. Thank you for sharing your love for Ronnie and emotions with me and my husband Michael. It truly helped us through this difficult time.
The one thing we must all remember about Ronnie is that he wants us to remember to laugh and love each other!!! ï¿½
