“ My apology, please disregard the first message I sent you. I got cousin Rose confused with Anna Blanchette who is also a distant cousin. My thoughts and prayers are with Rose and her family. I wish I met and known my cousin. We both share two common ancestors. Your Great Grandfather William LeBeau is brother to my Great Grandmother, Rose LeBeau Provancher mother to my Grandmother Lucy Provancher Granger and your Great Grandmother Nelda Granger LeBeau is sister to my Grandfather Ameddie Granger. I'm an amature Genealogist. I'm a webmaster of a family history website of the Granger and LeBeau families who settled in St. George, Illinois by 1847. I have traced our ancestors as far back as early as 1520 France. If you wish to see your ancestry and meet more of your cousins, do not hesitate in contacting me at the above number or e-mail address. The website is called "Charles Granger 1810" named after our Great Great Grandfather, Charles Granger who settled in St. George in 1847.##imported-begin##Donald Granger##imported-end##

“ Iola, Steve, Lynne, and Karen we are so sorry that Rose has passed away. We wish great strength and comfort to you and your families. I will always remember your mother as such a kind and unselfish lady who would do anything for her family and friends. She always had such a wonderful vitality and interest in life about her. I will especially remember her love for Thanksgiving and Christmas when she would make preparations for the family get-to-gathers. She wanted to make sure everyone was comfortable and enjoyed themselves. Those occasions were always special. Now Rose is in the comforting arms of God, her husband Russ, and her grandson Andrew for eternity. May God forever bless her soul as she has been a blessing for so long to us all.##imported-begin##Jim, Malinda, and Angelica Sherer##imported-end##

“ Grandma Rose,

Never will I forget Peanuts tournaments gone crazy, you trying (and trying!) to teach me Okey, playing in your attic and Grandpa's office with Jill, coffee cake in the morning, and pattymelts from Baker's Square. ï¿½Or just Baker's Square, period. :) ï¿½

You have filled so many hearts and lives with joy and ï¿½happiness. ï¿½Your memory will be cherished always. I know you are at peace. ï¿½You are so loved and missed. Love always, Kim###imported-begin###Kim Regnier###imported-end###

“ Rose was a dear friend of my mother, Margiene Betourne, who passed in November. They were "tray favor" volunteers together at St. Mary's. How mom looked forward to Mondays when she could join Rose and the other ladies as they worked on their little crafts to bring a smile to those hospitalized patients. They also enjoyed many Sunday morning breakfasts after Mass together. Lynne, we went to St. Pat's grade school together. To you and your sisters and brother, my deepest sympathy. Your mother was a kind person and I enjoyed knowing her. ##imported-begin##Lori Betourne Rusk##imported-end##
