“ For as long as I can remember Aunt Ruby was the sweetest elderly lady I came across. I always admired how bright she stayed for her age as well. You could have a conversation with her and she would never get boring. She always had a sense of humor as well. Some of the quirky things she could come up with just illuminated your mind. Even though I only got to see Aunt Ruby at either family get togethers or dinner parties, she always stole the show. Everyone at the party knew, respected and loved Aunt Ruby. As I got older, I grew to appreciate how chipper she stayed even though her body was slowly shutting down. Knowing that has actually helped me over come some minute problems in my life. I was talking to Aunt Ruby one specific time and I will always remember what she told me. "Josh just remember you have your health and your youth so be thankful." May the lord grant you at the gates of heaven Aunt Ruby.
