“ Sorry to the family and other friends of Russ. I worked my first job at Jewel in Kankakee and later in Bourbonnais for Russ in frozen/dairy. I liked the job and would still do it today. I think he grew to like me and appreciate me and my work but he wasn't always easy :) :) I gave him some rides home the past year and was happy he was able to retire with my help. It was far too short a retirement but he was glad to be free. NOW he's really FREE.....see ya later

“ My late husband, Bryan Lambert, worked with Russell at Jewel. They didn't always get along but they had many interest in common. That helped them get along. It was interesting talking to him, he did have a lot of knowledge.

“ So sorry to see we lost Russ and then also to see all the losses he had in life. Russ, Wayne and I had a great time together on our 7th/8th grade west junior class trip to D.C. i had hoped to see him at one of the westview H.S. reunions but never did. Russ was a good guy and will be missed. My deepest sympathy to Wayne and all the rest of Russ's dear Family and friends. Besides family, Russ has fellow Westview Kayhawks greeting him in Heaven. Rest easy my friend and enjoy our Father's mansion.
