“ ı̇½I wish I could be with you all in your time of need. It seems that people only get all together when something like this happens. Although I wish I could see you all the computer will have to do. I sure wish I had the chance to see and talk to sweet Ruth before she passed. The first thing I thought of when I heard she passed was that she couldn't be without her Ed. Now the Lord is taking care of them both. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Catherine [Jaenicke] DeVries##imported-end##

“ Mom,

As the phone calls come in and friends and neighbors stop by everyone has the same question, "Why?" We tell them we don't know but in reality your family knows it must have been from a broken heart. We will try to carry on without you but it won't be easy.

May you and Dad rest in peace.

Love Always,

“ *½Such a shock to hear that Mom has gone
½so soon after Dad. ½I worked with her at ½SDC, several years ago & we had a great
½time. ½All of the family has my sympathy
½and will be remembered in my prayers and
½thoughts. ½She was a very helpful person
½whenever a person needed her assistance.
½I will remember her how she was, as I am
½not able to walk very far, so doubt,if I
½will get to the services, but I will be
