“ So sorry to hear of Sally's passing. I was out of the country on vacation but my daughter saw it on the Clancy web site. She was a very special person! I will never forget the trip down to your area she entertained the whole time! So sorry for your loss, I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers. Sharon Bonewell from the Clay Basket

“ I was so sad to hear of Sally's passing. The first time I met Sally was back in the late 80's/early 90's at a Window Covering seminar where she spoke to a class. Her stories were colorful & wonderful - filled with wit & great advice, and as a young consultant, she left quite the impression on me. I was so happy over the years to have had the opportunity to hear her speak, and ultimately have her as the keynote speaker at our Hunter Douglas fundraiser for Kid's Closet. Sally will be missed by so many.

“ I have been representing Hunter Douglas Window Fashions in MO and IL for 27 years. Knowing Sally was such a bright spot during those days. My clients absolutely loved her as I did. Whenever we could catch her to attend an event in our area, we knew it would be an instant success.

Your wonderful smile and genuine personality will be missed by all.
We love you, Sally.

“ 67 is just too soon for someone with Sally's seemingly boundless energy and activities. Sally is one of a kind. Her wit & humor educated & entertained thousands, benefiting all who heard her speak. We first heard Sally about 17 years ago at a window covering expo in Las Vegas. Then had the pleasure to hear her at various Hunter Douglas training functions. She had a way of speaking candidly... and get away with it! She also had a warm, generous and sharing heart with anyone she met. Sally was all class. Our heart and prayers go out to you Jennifer and family. May God embrace & comfort you with so many loving memories.

“ So sorry to hear of Sally's passing. Our sympathy to Jennifer and Tom and children. I hope Jennifer received my messenger message on Facebook. She was such a warm person. We had a great time the day she visited the farm in Missouri. Love to all, Karen and Dave and family.

“ I first read about Sally Morse in the famous Woman's Day Magazine of April 1984. She owned an interior design franchise. Because of Sally, I purchased my own franchise and still own it to this day. Rest in peace Sally. She was amazing.
