“ Sam was a fun person to be around and she always made me laugh. Her personality was magnetic and she and I got along great from the getgo. She will be deeply missed. My thoughts go out to her family and loved ones. Rest easy, Marsha. xo

“ The years I was lucky to have Sam in my life will always be cherished and thought of often. She was one of the first people to bring out my inner weird and make me feel inspired and loved. I never wanted the days to end when we hung out ...and I can imagine that's exactly how she made everyone around her feel. She will forever occupy a space in my heart because in a way, her friendship helped shape my sense of self. I still find myself from time to time laughing out loud thinking of the shenanigans we got into. We were different in so many ways, but I felt so loved and fulfilled whenever we were together. My thoughts go out to Jan, her son, and all of her family and friends.
