“ Bob..our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family...

I know she will be missed greatly. I also will miss her...she was a very good person and my wife and i always enjoyed hers and your company.

 Sometimes I wonder why God takes the good people to heaven and leaves some of the troublemakers here on earth to continue their wild lifestyles. I think life is not really fair at times but who am I to say...

try to be strong and treat every day as a great gift to spend time with family and friends. Remember we are here with offered support....Don and Pam i¿½###imported-begin###don and pam longtin###imported-end###

“ It is so hard to put into words how sad we feel about Sandy's passing. When Sandy worked for me she was very quiet, but would speak her mind if needed. Even though Sandy was quiet, she could come up with some pretty good stuff to make you laugh and that is what I will remember the most about her. She was always friendly and would bring in little gifts just to make a co-workers day. Not only was Sandy an employee, but she was also a friend. Sandy would shared things going on with her son Jason and you could tell he was her whole world. Sandy will be missed by many. Rest in Peace Sandy. God Bless!
