

Sandra Lee Dawson

November 20, 1954 - March 6, 2018

God welcomed home a lively and tenacious angel when Sandra Lee Dawson of Morocco, IN passed peacefully and courageously on March 6th, 2018. Sandy was born 11/20/1954 in St. Anne, IL to Miriam (Muggs) G. and Paul L. Corkins.

Raised in St. Anne, IL and Morocco, IN, Sandy was a 1972 graduate of North Newton High School and subsequently earned an Interior Design degree from Indiana State University in 1976. She maintained incredible college memories, most notably serving as a Sparkette on the university dance team and receiving “love notes” from her future husband, Richard Dawson. The couple became married in 1976 and lived their 42 years of happy marriage in Morocco, IN.

Sandy was an energetic and eccentric person who didn't know a stranger. A force to be reckoned with, she loved her family and friends without restraint and beyond measure. A consummate friend, daughter, sister, wife, mother, and grandmother, Sandy put others ahead of herself, living a life of significance. Her creativity and passion for fun and the arts resulted in lasting friendships around the country. These attributes also made her one cool “mimi” who will be remembered by her grandchildren for the rest of time.

Sandy is survived by her husband, Rick Dawson; parents, Paul and Muggs

Corkins; a sister, Paula Storey (Stephen). Also surviving are her children, John (Gretchen) Dawson and Carla Dawson as well as two grandchildren, Lucy and Jack. She joins her loving grandparents in heaven.

Sandy lived life by design, not by default. Both a fighter and a lover, she brought out the best in others and built a beautiful family. Her death leaves a void that can only be filled by her memory and faith in God's never ending grace. A celebration of Sandy's "life by design" is being planned for family and friends in the coming months.

Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10
