“ To the Stucky family,
Sandy was my babysitter and a very dear friend to our entire family from the time she moved across the street from my grandma Cahan. Sandy took me and my brothers in as my grandpa was passing and I will never forget her kindness. Laura and Nita you were the first kids I ever babysat. Sandy was a kind compassionate person and I will miss her.

“ I have wonderful memories of Sandy when my family lived on South Fifth Avenue. Our house was across the street, and my brother and I often played outside with Anita and Laura. I remember Sandy sometimes babysat us. For some reason, I used to tell my parents, “I cleaned my plate at Sandy’s house,” whenever I ate a meal over there. I’m not sure why I said that, but it’s a sweet memory. I’m so sorry to learn of Sandy’s passing. She and her family will always have a special place in my heart. — Erin Monahan Stauffer
