“ My first real memories of Scott are when we all went to Ormond Beach, Florida in August 1993. He stood out as laid back yet intense at times, and was always up for a good time, He was easy to befriend and really cared about those around him especially his wonderful family. But don't piss him off whatever you do. :) The memory of him introducing his then very young son Christopher to the beach will always stay with me. As Scott lowered him to the ground by his arms, Christopher's legs rose up. He did not want to touch that new weird stuff called sand. We all had a great time on the beach that year.

To Dawn, Christopher and Nicholas, and the Hinrichs family I'm sorry we could not be there at the service, but are with you in spirit and hold you in our thoughts. You have always made us feel that we are part of the family. We love you guys.

“ There are no words that can express how sorry we are. I wish I knew why bad things happen to such good people. This is such an unimaginable loss for Dawn, Christopher, Nicholas, his family and all who knew Scott. Our hearts are broken with deep sorrow and disbelief. We share many great memories over the years. From vacations, boating and just hanging out playing euchre and talking until 4-5 in the morning. Sending prayers to all.

“*People come into our lives, touch us, and then often leave all too soon. And so it was that we saw a bright star, basked in its radiance, then the earth turned and it was gone, but it left behind an everlasting warm glow.
Scott brought energy and enthusiasm into all of our lives! We will miss him.*

“ He could run a Spartan race, rewire your electrical, jump out of a plane or build you a house. He could also bake a mean pie, make you a quilt or cut your hair! He was a man for all seasons - fiercely independent, brutally honest and filled with immense love for family, friends and life. Our hearts are broken from the loss of our beloved brother Scott. I wish Dawn, Christopher and Nicholas peace in the coming days.

“ Scott was such a joy to be around. He will be missed dearly. We hired him on short term, but the friendship did not end after the job was over. We will miss the racing, offroading on your property, and fun that we got to share together. His positive attitude touched many. These memories will last a lifetime. I notified the guys at work and they send their condolences as well. Their memories were of Scotts constant positive attitude and great work ethic. My heart goes out to his family. If you guys ever need anything, don't hesitate to contact us.
