“ *I can still remember sitting at my computer playing video poker and turning around to see Scott as a young child holding Kyle's hand and watching me. ĩĵ½From that time on, we provided childcare for the boys until they were old enough to be on their own. ĩĵ½I feel as though Scott was one of my own sons and am in much pain over this. ĩĵ½Rick, Windy, and Kyle, I am praying for you all and want you to know that our family loves you as if you are our family also. ĩĵ½May God shed his comforting love abroad in your hearts and give you peace. ĩĵ½Love,

“ What a shock! We raise our sons, and are so proud of them. We wish only life's best for them, and then something like this happens. It completely throws everyone off. How could this happen?

Life is so unperdicable. Scott was such a handsome young man with a bright future. Our hearts go out to his family.

This will be a long hard journey until you are able to see Scott again some day.

We will pray for you whenever you come to our minds. Mother's day has just passed, and my heart ached for you mom, and dad I will be praying that Father's Day will not be too bad for you. Keep the good memories close, and your other children even closer. With love and prayers, Mrs. J. PS Kyle, you are especially in my prayers because this has to be so heart wrenching for you to lose your brother. May God comfort your family with his unmeasureable love.##imported-begin##June Johnston##imported-end##

“ Dear Friends and Family of Scott,

I did not know Scott, but as I sat in the church with my mother, Lucille, Dubree, it was quite evident that this was a very special, and much loved young man. I grieve for all of you and will keep you in my prayers.

“ Scott...I still wake up every morning and wish this was all a bad dream. I thought that we'd have forever to know each other. I never dreamed that God would take away our chance. You've touched my life more than you could ever know. So many people loved you. I'm just glad I got to be one of them.

To Scott's family...I've tried to understand why something like this has happened. It doesn't make a bit of sense to me. They say that everything happens for a reason. I just can't find one for this. My heart goes out to you and everyone who knew him, because to know him is to love him. He will be truly missed.

You are all in my prayers!##imported-begin##Jennifer Brachle##imported-end##

“ Though I hadn't talked to Scott since high school, I often wondered how he was doing and what he was up to. I stood schocked and speachless when I read of his death. I tried to read it many times, hoping that it really wasn't him. I know he was a wonderful person, inside and out, that could make friends with anyone he met. I can only hope he knows how much he was and is loved and what a truly awesome person he was. He will be deeply missed by everyone.##imported-begin##Ashley Lowman##imported-end##

“well from the first day my sister came in my room and said "ian come out here and meet my friend Scott" i got up and walked into the front room (not really knowing what to expect) he stood up and ask shook my hand, and said "hi im Scott, is that your bike out there?" i relpied "ya it is ,why " he told me he used to love to bike. We sat there for about in hour talking about what he planed to do ind the furture what all hes done is the past, i listened may not have sadi much but learn a lot about him in just an hour.... Scott started to come over more and more. Him and my sister start to "go out".he was never really just my sister's boyfreind,I though of him more as a older brother that i could say and do anything with. Even just stupid stuff most people would think was weird or grose , like me walkin up to Buger King and Scott cam runing acros the street just to tackle me ..only to come to find oput that him tackleing me would start a warbetween us mooning eah other .. i would always get him when he wasnt ready for it and grose him out ..he always said that he would get me back,I never thought anything of it ..then one day i was sttting watching TV and SCott came running in my room and rubbed he bare butt all over my faceall of the memories me and SCott had together ,playing X BOX and getting mad at it becasue we sucked at the gaem, go cruise to pick up girls even though we both already had girlfriends,go to DC and sitting of in the corner cuz we hated country music, just the little things like that,are the one s that i will always remember ..

 7/8 hour ..Friday, April 29 ,2005 ...Miss Oliver came into the calss and said Ian Walton cna i talk to you .. (i had many different feeling,was I in trouble, did I do something good..?) she said "follow me " I asked was wrogn i;½"their has been a family emergancey " (I thought something happend to my grandpa ,he had many medical problems) WE got to Mr. Wright's office ..I walk in only to see my older sister and m,y dad cry , Mr. Wright said "ian, Scott Birch was in a car accident last night .." i ask is he ok ?" "he passed awa".....i hit my head agianst the wall . i would have never have guess Scott ..of all people , why..

 This has probally been the hardest thing i have ever had to go trough in my life ...

Scott and my sister shared somthing that most people wont ever feel .. there relionship was like no other .. my sister didnt really want to go awqay to school nexty year ..her and Scott had plans..they were going to school close to each other so not to far apart and they still could be together..Scott was the one that mad my sister want to get up in the mornings, he made her happy..

and if I Scott was still here with us ..i would have many questions for him ..i would have told him so much .. i know that he is still with us .. i ½but I am still waiting for Scott to walk in the front door and hit me or give me a weggy or something ...I miss him .. we all miss him .. and as i sit her typeing this letter crying like crazy.. I just wisah that wherever Scott is right now he is watching down on everybody he touched and keep them safe ...

 i ½i ½i love you Scott ... we all miss you##imported-begin##ian walton##imported-end##

“ I only had known Scott for 2.5 years, but I had the opportunity of taking many business courses with him at KCC. I was fortunate enough to get to know him outside of class and he was a great friend. I remember just a couple months ago he called me to ask my opinion on which college he should go to. I knew NIU was his dream college and he should at least try to get in. Just knowing he was accepted to his dream college makes me happy. Unfortunately, I found out after the memorial that he had passed on. I, too among others, couldn't believe it was him. I read the article over and over and kept thinking, "Please don't let it be him." He had so many goals he wanted to accomplish that I know he could have achieved. I didn't know the family or a lot of his friends, but I am really sorry. To the family, I can't imagine what you are going through at all. You have my greatest sympathies. ##imported-begin##Cari Babich##imported-end##

“ I first met Scott in one of several classes we had together at Robert Morris College. I spoke of having a hard time finding a job. Scott told me that NuMark Credit Union had an accounting position that he thought would open up to the public soon. I was patient and he didn't forget that he promised to let me know if and when it did. A couple weeks later he told me the position opened to the public and who to contact. I got that job and I owed a debt of gratitude to Scott. I thanked him so much! We continued to have classes together and somehow we were always put in the same groups. (Robert Morris was big on group work.)
At NuMark, Scott, Maria and I worked well together and we were sad and happy at the same time when Scott told us of his decision to leave NuMark and go on to Northern. I remember telling him, "Do it now, not when you're in your 40's like me!"
I will always remember him. I will remember how smart he was, how he made us worry that our presentations wouldn't be complete without his part, how he helped me get settled in my new position, how he'd walk into the office 1/2 awake and 1/2 thrown together in the morning, how he joked around, and I'll always remember his great smile. I thank God that our paths crossed even if it was for a short time. Scott was my angel in disguise.
My prayers to you and your family. God Bless you and God Bless Scott.

“ Scott and I shared some good times together. Most of them are at work bc he loved to pick on me. He used to draw lines on my arm and call them "tiger stripes." He thought that was the greatest thing. There was this one time that I thought he was just putting tape on my arm (which was nothing new) but then I found out it was these ink tapes from a indentification kit the police department gave us. I was in the bathroom for about a half hour scrubbing my arm to get all the ink off. I also remember the time that we got called into Linda's office bc the day before he picked me up and carried me over his shoulder in front of a member and so needless to say we got talked to about it. Scott and I did a few things outside of work to. We had a good time.

The memories I carry of Scott will always be in my heart. I was lucky to have met him bc he was a good guy (even when he picked on me). His friendship ment so much to me.

To Scotts family I am sorry for the loss. I want to let you know that he has touched the hearts of many people and he will never be forgotten. May God be with you and Scott always.##imported-begin##Melissa Hall##imported-end##
