“ My favorite memory of Sherri is her dancing and clapping in the front row of Cornerstone (when I was the drummer in the worship band AND she thought that it was cool that I had a Jimi Hendrix sticker on my kick drum 🙌❤️😎

“ As a member of Cornerstone, once her son and mine were friends on a ski trip. At one point, Rob was not scheduled to go, but Brad talked Sherri and Bob into letting them go. During the trip, Rob fell and broke his leg. We felt so bad, but Sherri was so kind and understanding. I'd always thought she was a beautiful lady. Rest in Peace, Sherri... you ran a good race.
