“ Amazing, classy lady Shirley. An incredible Mom and Grandmother, she was beautiful inside and out. I was always inspired and admired her combination of grit and grace. She is once again in the loving arms of her soulmate Nick. They leave a legacy of love and support of family and a treasure chest of precious memories for all the generations. With deepest sympathy and thoughts and prayers to the family....

“ It is with great sadness that we express our deepest condolences to all the Africano's. She was such a loving, truly caring soul. Every single visit I was greeted like one of the family. Such a legacy she leaves behind. To experience an Africano gathering is simply amazing! She was more than a Mom. I will never ever forget her.
