“ We're so sorry for your loss. We pray our Loving God will comfort you. We wish we had known Stanley, Jr better. From reading the other tributes, we can tell he was a loving, friendly person. We must have met him at his father, Stanley Sr.'s funeral some years ago. His father, Gloss Rattin, was my father, Ben's, younger brother. I know the children of Ben Rattin, of whom I am one (Ella Mae), extend their love and sympathy to you.

“ To the Family of Stanley Rattin Jr:Our entire hospice team extends are deepest sympathy to Stanley's family. He was a pleasure to know and take care of. He will always be remembered for sending our staff to the Dairy Queen for milkshakes, Mr. Misties or going on a search for a microwave pizza. He charmed us all with his quiet and pleasant manner. He will surely be missed by everyone who knew him.Peace and BlessingsLonnie DirksBereavement and Outreach CoordinatorIMH Hospice###imported-begin###Iroquois Memorial Hospice###imported-end###
