What a dear and wonderful friend you were to me, Steve! Loyal, fun, and generous to a fault. We met in NYC at a Porcupine Tree concert, and attended many gigs back here in Illinois and fun friends gatherings over the years. You had your unfair share of pain and suffering, and for that I am sorry. :(But in the end you found love again with Dee. :) Rock in peace, my friend! 'Save me a front row seat' until we meet again. Much love and prayers to the Fournier family. <3

“ Sending my deepest heartfelt sympathies to Steve's family. Even though we never met in person, you were so good to my daughter and loved her so much, I know you two would have had a wonderful life together! It just breaks my heart to know this will never come to be. God Rest Your Soul and may Perpetual light shine upon you. You did not deserve the end that you were dealt. I love you for being such a good person, and loving Denise with all your heart. You were the love of her life without a doubt!!! I pray you will look down upon her and continue to watch over her. She is devastated and so heartbroken! God love you and rest in peace .

“ Steve, your measure of a person was your heart of gold , your sincere concern for the needs of others , loyalty to your friend, and your love of music. Thanks for inviting Signify (Cloud Zero) into your life and know we embraced you like one of us. We raised a glass to you last night at practice and gave you a set of Porcupine Tree music for your next journey. We'll miss you my good friend.

“ *Rest In Peace Steve.
We first met on a crazy ride from NYC to Philly in 2007, going between Porcupine Tree shows. Shared a cabin on Cruise to the Edge. You shared your home with me when I was in the area. You were an excellent friend and music buddy. Say hello to Mr. Peart for me.*
