“ I am saddened to hear of Steve's passing. Steve and I worked in the advertising department of The Daily Journal years ago. Steve was witty and fun, and he always paid such careful attention to detail for his advertising clients. I know he had a strong faith and was dedicated to his church, and that he was a comfort to his parents.

“ Steve and I worked together at The Daily Journal where he made many fond memories with co-workers. He was such a joy to be around...always thinking about others before himself. We lost a good person.
