“ Scott, Zach and extended family we are so very sorry for your loss. Susie was a wonderful person full of warmth and love for family and living life to the fullest. I will always have fond memories of the time we spent together at our boys sporting events. We had many good talks and lots of laughs, she was a ray of sunshine and always had a smile and warm greeting whenever I saw her. Our lives may have gone in different directions in the past few years but I always thought of her as a good friend and I always will.

“ As a kid in high school, there were just certain people who stood out in a crowd. Susie was one of them in my eyes. She was so sweet, popular, smart, and just a wonderful person. I remember she and Scott from their early years of dating, and through the very last time I saw her, she looked every bit as in love with him as she did when we were kids. Talking about he and Zach lit her up, and you could feel her love for them. Scott, Zach, and Julie, you are all in my prayers. I hope that you know that there is no distance or time great enough to break the bond of love. In that way, you will always have Susie with you. As you grieve and heal, I'll be praying for your peace. Love to all of you.

“ Scott and Zach, we were shocked to hear of Susie passing, so heartbroken for you. Greg and I didn't see you very often, but when we did, Susie always made sure to ask about our family and update us on Zach, who she adored, and was so proud of. We are thinking of you often, praying for you always. Big hugs to you both..Greg and Cindy Coyne

“ Heaven has gained another beautiful angel.. I am honored to say I knew such a wonderful, kindhearted, funny and loving woman. I am sending lots of love and prayers to Zach, Scott, family and friends in their time of need. One thing I will remember about Susie is our goofy crazy talks as would laugh and carry on after dropping the kids off to school when they were little, and throughout the years as our children reached many milestones along the sides of each other. She would beam with pride when she would talk about her son Zach or her husband Scott. She was happy go lucky always smiling as she carried on her days. Our last conversation was about how the kids had grown way too fast and she didn't know what was to come next since they had just recently graduated Highschool. Being a mother and a wife were her joy! I know that there are many kids out there who felt it an honor that Zach was able to share his mom with them. I am honored to have know such an amazing woman. She will be missed by many. The love that shined through her smile as she would laugh will never be forgotten. Rest In Paradise

“ I met Suzy while working in retail. She was so easy to work with, it was the one thing that made it worth going to work there. Although I have not seen her in some time, I still remember that smile. Scott and Zach were the love of her life and I can only imagine the loss they feel. May God bring you comfort in this time of grief and loss. I know she will attend all of Zach's games and cheer him on.

“ I went to school with "Suzy" from 5th grade thru High School. Facebook has a way of reuniting people in one way or another. For me it was enjoying watching Her and Scott as proud Parents to Zach and Like I do with my Son post pictures of every and all achievements, small and large.

I left Bradley after High School and for the most part have never been back. When I think about Suzy, I see her in her cheerleading outfit, or at School and ALWAYS with a Smile on her face that would stand out from far and wide.

Today I am SAD, and I am going to allow myself to Be SAD. 49 years was not enough time. RIP Young Lady. Heaven Got an Upgrade
