“ I remember Susan when we were at Our Lady's Academy. She was one year older than I was; and her sister, MaryJane, was one year younger than I was. I remember Susan in school. When I was little I used to think she was sooooo cool - an upper class person. Susan always smiled and said "hi" whenever I would see her. Back in August of 1969, my twin sister and I, lived in an efficiency apartment. Susan lived in the same complex. I moved out and would see Susan occasionally at her parents restaurant - who could forget "Don's" - hasn't been a place like it since. Always good food. Anyway, Susan worked there and she was always very friendly and polite to me. She was a quiet person and kept to herself, but this is what I remember of Susan Wulff. Didn't know her at Rupp. God has you and now he will be taking care of you. Good bye Susan. Say "hi" to my folks while you're up there.##imported-begin##Rita Rademacher Farthing##imported-end##

“ Susan, You knew us well. You insisted for a long time that we get together because you felt we were meant for each other and you were so right! You were our witness when we married November 2, 2001, and our lives are enriched by your love and care. You will be in our loving memories forever. Go with God.##imported-begin##David & Genevieve McIntyre##imported-end##

“ Susan was always so sweet and pleasant to me when I saw her and always wanted to be helpful.

One year she was having a garage sale, it was so hot and I had rode up on my bicycle to her garage. ĩ½She insisted on going in and getting me a glass of water. ĩ½That was the best! ĩ½I know she didn't know me well, but her true person came out to me that day!

Susan, thank you for sharing with me that day!

Dear Family:

So sorry to read in the journal about Susan's passing. I met Susan while we were classmates together at KCC. She and I were also students in the BOG program at GSU. She was a lovely person always friendly and cheerful and always putting her own problems aside to take time to listen to the problems and worries of other people. She will certainly will be missed by all who got to know her.

May God bless all of you in this most sorrowful time and keep you under his loving care and protection.

“ I can only Imagine what hurt, pain shock and disbelief you are all feeling, losing a daughter, a sister, a friend, an aunt, a neice... ĩ½I miss her also.

Although our time together has been less through time, Susan, was my friend. She always opened her mind, her heart, her door, her ear and her arms to me and my family. Many phone calls, many cards, may e-mails, many books, many gifts, she shared with us to encourage and enrich us and help us through some tough times, or she gave just to give.

My only reget, is that, we were not able to be there more for her. Susan, made an inpacnt on us all and she will not be forgotten.

We all share the hope in Jesus Christ that we will all get to see Susan again some day. ĩ½I'm also glad that there is another family member up in heaven keeping Jacob compay, until we all get to meet again.

We are very greatful to have known Susan.

Susan, will be Sincerely missed,

RuthMarie Knupp (and Gene & Marie)

“ I was a classmate of Susan's at the old Our Lady Academy. I always remember her outgoing attitude and I'm sure I had a crush on her at sometime during grade school. I continued to see her many times after grade school but after leaving the area I lost touch with her. I'm very sorry for her leaving us so soon. I'm sure she is in heaven talking over old times with our other classmates Ron Gray and Ron Jacobs who preceded her.
