“ Grandma I love and miss you dearly and forever will. I treasure the time I have had with you and all the memories we made, they will always stay close to my heart. I would give anything just to spend one more of our days together.....watching our favorite tv shows, having supper done for "the boys" everyday, you teaching me how to cook the few things I wanted to learn how to cook, setting your hair in rollers after your shower then styling it and I would always tell you how beautiful you looked and you would say...Thanks to you!! How my knees would crack and you would laugh and tell me I was getting old!!!! :) When I wasn't there due to being sick one day, as soon as you saw me the next morning you would say almost in tears..."thank God you are here, I missed you yesterday. You have no idea how that melted my heart. If Uncle Tom wasn't there for a day, you would ask me.... When will Tom come HOME. And you were ALWAYS WORRIED about Uncle Dennis. So cute. I have so many precious memories , I could keep going. Thank you for visiting me in our special way. I know it's you and I'm so happy we had our way known. Please visit me often as you are always close to my heart. I love and miss you dearly my beautiful Grandma.

“ I miss you so much grandma. I remember so many good times spending the night. Having coco wheats and toast and will always remember the sunday meals. You are the glue that holds this family together. Rest in peace. You are now in heaven with grandpa and grandma Pepe. Love always and forever will never forget you grandma...i carry you with me every were I go. Rest in peace

“ Grandma you filled so many hearts with love and joy by just being you. I admired everything you did and continue to do in spirit. I'm listening to you even now grandma and hold you even closer to my heart. You really are the glue holding our family together and I know your spirit is even more powerful now because miracles really happen. You taught each one of this by your power of faith and prayer and by believing in the goodness of The Lord. You taught me the meaning of family. My most treasured memory is when all of us gather at your table in the name of family and show each other love and care to one another because that is all you ever wanted from each and everyone of us. To BE a family TOGETHER especially on Sunday in honor of all The Lord gives and provides to us all! Each other!! Gods blessings to you all in grandmas name! Amen!

“ We love you very much grandma and always will! You are forever in our hearts. Missing you already, but know you are finally with grandpa again and you are both watching over us all. You taught me to be so loving and kind. It is also you that taught me to be thankful for what I have. And for that I am so blessed have you as my grandmother. You are the glue that keeps our family together. We will never forget you or the love you bring to our family!

*Forever your grandson,
Jonathan*
