“ I was so sorry to hear of Terry's death. I have known him since his days in confirmation at our church, Our Savior Lutheran. He was in my daughter's confirmation class. Terry has been an amazing part of my life these past years. He was my hair stylist and when I had my first cancer chemo, he insisted on coming to my house to shave my head so I didn't have to have others looking at me at the salon. I enjoyed his friendly smile and greeting when we would meet at Jewel. He was a special person and will be missed by so many. My sympathy to all his family and loved ones.

“ Randy: So sorry to hear about Terry. I remember him coming into Andaul Jewelers and the last time I saw him was at Meijer grocers working at the checkout. I only had the pleasure of meeting you once at the jewelry store. He was always so pleasant and had a beautiful smile. My hope was that he did not suffer. My condolences to you and his family.

“ He was such a free spirit. Getting my hair done was something I looked forward to as Terry took the experience to a whole new level. Every time we ended up in the same mass it was like God put two children next to each other. We would giggle and make small talk. Not necessarily church like but always fun. Then He had his serious side to. Many long philosophic conversations. And he could cook like no one else. He loved Randy soo. He has been and will continue to be very missed. My heart simply breaks. May God hold him close and my God hold all his family as well as Randy his spouse close. Love always.
