“ I didn't know Terry a very long time, but during that time I came to know a very funny guy, who was well respected by students and staff alike. ĩ¿½He will be missed.##imported-begin##Pam Werr##imported-end##

“ Terry was a man of many educational talents--in addition to his humor which kept the classroom and my job from becoming "too" serious, he was a teacher and mentor to me. ĩ¿½I was new to the educational system and Terry, along with Christy Pickens, showed me the ropes. ĩ¿½I'm grateful and honored to have been "taught" by him.##imported-begin##Carl E. “"To teach is to touch a life forever." Terry has certainly touched the lives of so many students, young adults, friends, and family. His memory will forever will be in our hearts. I believe that the last thing that Terry taught all of us is that "time" is so very precious and that we need to live each day as if it were our last. Rest in peace. Your love is forever in my heart.##imported-begin##Kelly Young##imported-end##

“I knew Terry through his brother Bud. ¶½While Buddy and I may have suffered from a "lack of focus" from time-to-time, Terry was always the guy who knew where he was going and what was important. He devoted his professional life to helping kids and clearly, he had an impact on many lives. ¶½Paraphrasing an old Irish limerick, "The road rose up to meet him". ¶½##imported-begin##Jim Heenan##imported-end##
