“ Terry will be sadly missed. i½He was always so upbeat. I have worked with Terry the entire time I have been with Armour/CSL Behring - 27 years. i½i½He was always helpful - during his years as our Burroughs/Unisys repairman and as part of our IT Group here. Terry was never much for attending meetings, but everyone know that was how Terry was. i½I remember when we had a recent audit and heard someone whistling while I was in the audit room. i½Later we joked with Cindy about it being Terry, but someone confirmed he was not in the area at that time. Everyone knew about Terry's whistling.His wealth of knowledge, hard work, whistling and friendly smile will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Teresa Warman##imported-end##

“ Terry was a true gentleman whose only concern was to help those who needed it. I've tried to pattern my attitude and response to customer's needs after those Terry humbly espoused. He will be sorely missed by those who knew him and those who will never be fortunate enough to know him. Be at peace good friend.##imported-begin##David Arseneau##imported-end##

“ My mother, Virginia Waggoner-Rackley, and Terry's mother, Marie, are 1st cousins. My mother, whose health is failing, was saddened to hear this news and so on her behalf and on behalf of the entire Waggoner Family, we send our deepest regrets. I never really knew how I was related to Marie and consequently, Aunt Faye, until my adult life, but I do remember her and the family attending our reunions. As the family history collector and having lived so close to Bourbonnais I regret I never made contact with Terry. Our deepest sympathy to Marie, Kara, Marva, and especially to Terry's wife, daughters and grandchildren. ##imported-begin##Doris Rackley-Hubner##imported-end##

“ I was very sorry to read of Terry's death. He was a special person to us at Parish Bank & Trust Company. Whenever we had machine or computer problems we always knew if we called Terry he could fix it. That smiling face was always a welcome scene.
