“ Theresa was a truly remarkable person. She was the most kind-hearted, loving, compassionate woman I had ever met. I called her many times on behalf of my partner who was often suicidal and in crisis and Theresa would always answer my calls and be there to calm the situation and help us all through the crisis. She was absolutely the best thing that has happened to us. Our sessions together were often amusing and light. But when we needed to get down to business, there was no one like Theresa to get that done. No mincing words. No holding back. She said it like it is and I respected her for that. She was real. She was awesome. She will be missed greatly. I just wished my partner and I had more time with her. She did a whole lot of great things in a short amount of time. You will be missed, our dear friend. Rest in peace

“ Theresa was my counselor for about the last year. I knew how she loved her clients and didn't want to let any of them down so she was determined to fight with everything she had in her. Her fight taught me so much. Her determination taught me more. She wouldn't let me feel bad unloading on her when she was so sick because she was determined to do her job and do it well...that taught me something even more. Because of Theresa I can honestly say I see more "value" in myself. I look at life a little differently than I had in a long time....you see, I came to her wanting to end my life and left her wanting to fight for it. I didn't get to have her long enough but I had her just enough to say that my life is forever changed because of her. May you rest in peace, my dear friend. Thank you for showing me life is worth the fight

“ Terry was my best friend for 33 years. She was my soul sister. We laughed and cried together. We traveled together. She meant everything to me. A part of my heart left with her. I was a better person for having her in my life. I love you Terry. Until we meet again. ❤️❤️
