“ To the Timm family, you had a FANTASTIC impression on our poor farm family growing up in Limestone Township Kankakee through your husband Harold's generosity of bringing Hostess products that had just expired and had to be removed from store shelves as a result. We enjoyed many hohos, ding dongs, pies, cupcakes, etcetera. Theresa was a dear friend of my mom, Dorothy O'Connor Niesen through the altar and rosary society as well as my aunt Shirley O'Connor who volunteered with you at birthright. Thank you so much for your lasting positive impact on the Niesen family. My deepest Sympathies and Condolences to the Timm Family. May our Lord through the Holy Spirit, comfort you.

“ Tammy, I always remember your Mother as one of the most Beautiful ladies I've ever seen. Every time I seen her (both your parents) they were smiling and happy at school functions. My sincere sympathy to you and Tom, the entire Timm family. I pray that Jesus wraps his arms around you and gives you the comfort of eternal peace.

“ Kelli and family, you are in my prayers. Sending condolences your way. Mrs. Timm was very sweet. I used live by Mrs. Timm in Hillside Manor. Every Halloween, she used to give out Twinkies to the Trick O Treaters. My Grandmother and her Volunteered together at Birthright.
