“ Mark and Family, I am truly sorry for your loss! Your mother was an angel from Heaven!! I remember the days that your parents and my parents would sit out on the patio into the late hours and play cards and have the most wonderful time together with their little gang!! Giggle, laugh at each other's jokes and just have a great time! I pray for you and your family that you may find peace at this trying time in your life. I will treasure the memories I have of Therese for the rest of my days!! God Bless

“ I loved Theresa as a sister. When we lived in St Anne we spent every Sat together. Did a lot of shopping. Her family came first and she loved you all so very much. When we were together we always talk about you all. She will always be in all our hearts. God bless you all. Always Barb & Tom

“ I loved seeing her every Saturday night at Mass. She always had a smile and a kind word to say.
I especially remember the many Christmas Eves after Mass when Guy, the boys, and I would go over just to chat and visit with Gary and Shirley for a bit at Theresa and Don’s home. Theresa always made us feel comfortable and welcome. She was a treasure to be around and know. R.I.P. dear friend.
