“ I knew Theresia from living across the alley from her and Frank..Wonderful people the both of them..Frank was always ready and willing to talk about the old days..We all missed him when he passed..The love for their son and his wife was wonderful..He sure was proud of his sons education..If I seen him outside I knew I would be out by his fence talking for a long while..He always took very good care of Theresia making sure she always got her exercise..They both will forever be missed..💕💕💕💕

Dear Susan, thanks so much for your fond remembrance of mom and dad. You captured dad so well. That's exactly how I remember him, always happy to have an over-the-fence chat. We are sad at this time but also happy to share memories and lay mom to rest next to my dad.
