“ Tom was my very first official crush....I was in 5th grade and my cousins wrestled with him in high school. He was also my first boyfriend ever when met him in high school. His passing has brought back so many great memories of him. As I read through others' memories I find a very common thread that I remember as well... Tom was a very sweet, kind, fun loving person. My deepest sympathy and prayers to his family. I am certian you will miss him dearly forever. But I hope you find comfort that you had him in your life- even so briefly. My prayers and great respect, Kristy M. St. John

“ I've known Tom for over 30 years and my heart is heavy. He was always a great friend to me and a joy to be around. He was one of my first friends at my first job and luckily I worked with him again later. His sense of humor and loyalty is something I'll always remember. His family is in my thoughts as I know the great love he has for you. He will be missed.

“ I worked with Tom at Armstrong. He was a good man to work with and a damn fine operator. He cared deeply about the quality of the tile we made, and he was always there to help if I was in a jam. You meet a lot of people in life. Some good, some bad. He was a good one, and I shall miss him.
