“ I never really got to know Tom as well as I would have liked too. I know from the way mom and Dan talked about him that he was a special person. He was the type of person that wore his heart on his sleeve. Everytime Tom's name was brought up, there always seemed to be a little bit of laughter that followed. Gerrie, the way it sounds, is that Tom touched many people's lives during his time her, I am honored to have met him the few times that I did. Take care, and we will miss you Tom.

“ It's funny how one can go thru life and know someone their whole life and when they pass away its only a page from their memory book, and they are soon forgotten. ¶½This is not the case with Tom...We knew him 9 short years but within that time he is in many chapters of our memory book and has left a big hole in our hearts. He will never, ever be forgotten. ¶½We will miss him terribly.

We love you Tom.
