“ I wish that I could offer more than just my sympathies and condolences. I originally met Tom because of a plant expansion almost ten years ago. In that time, Tom taught me many things. Everything from the technical to the personal. He was a mentor and a friend. His calm demeanor, wit, and knowledge made working with him or for him easy and fun. He will be greatly missed. ##imported-begin##John Tashijan##imported-end##

“ Mary,

My condolences to you and your family. It was with sadness that I heard Tom had passed away. I remember him as having a wonderful sense of humor and a positive presence during our years at Bishop Mcnamara High School—we were both 1970 graduates. I was able to attend Tom's memorial mass today 7/23/07 but apologize for not introducing myself. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ Dear Mary and family,

I wanted to express our profound sympathy and our condolences at this difficult time. ĩ½We were away and didn't learn of Tom's death until Sunday night. ĩ½Tom was my friend and a genuine man of integrity. ĩ½He was one of the most honest men that I have ever known.

Mary, if there is anything that we can do to help you in any way, please call. ĩ½We will keep you and Tom's family in our thoughts and prayers. ĩ½

Love and prayers,

Mark and Cheryl###imported-begin###Mark Smith###imported-end##

“ Tom was truly a special man. I always had a kind word for everyone. I very positive. I always willing to help. I

Tom and I spent quite a lot of time working together - not as much as others - but a lot. I will always remember his words of wisdom, his wit, and gentle demeanor no matter what the situation.

He spoke of Mary with words of great love and feeling. I My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ To a man of few words but much wisdom,

He helped me get a job that would help support my children and I, as a single-parent.

He had much patience and knowledge. He walked with softness, sureness, and his steps have left an impact in the diagnostic field of medicine that others carry on. Personally, I could always count on him for a straight and correct answer that would help me be the best manufacturing operator I could be. He always had my back at work, when others sought to discredit me or my work.

He will be greatly missed by Alisha and I, and he will never be forgotten.

I know Adam and Kate will enjoy seeing Tom in Heaven! I think they are the lucky ones!

May Mary know that her husband was a good, bright, and wonderful man! He had his struggles, he did the best he could, and he was good to people. He gave 200% to everything he touched.

He greatly loved you Mary and your daughter, Kate!

“ Mary,

I was sorry to hear of Tom's death. I knew Tom from McNamara, and he and my husband, Jim, became friends during our high school years when we all worked together at Meadowview Theatre. We had great times together. I can imagine that Tom and Jim are enjoying each other, once again, in heaven.

Take good care of yourself.

Sincerely,

Cathy Cinotto###imported-
