“ I hope someone sees this at such a late date. I just saw Tom's name in the Spring 2022 Irish Update "Rest In Peace" column. I no longer have any kin in the Kankakee area so I had no way of knowing about Tom's passing. He and I were early childhood friends and neighbors on Grand Ave in Bradley and went to St Joe's and Bishop Mac together. We are/were the same age. Tom, Jimmy Prince and I were fast friends as kids, having met around age 5 when our folks moved to Grand. We roamed the neighborhood together and enjoyed being kids. After highschool we lost touch as I moved away and out of state. I will always remember Tom as a kind, caring person with a sense of humility uncharacteristic of many kids. I hope he was that way as an adult too. His photo which accompanies this obituary reminds me of his father, "Buck". So long old friend.

“ Kathy and family I'm so sorry for your loss. Tom was a great guy. I'll never forget the time he shot me with an arrow when I was 5. He was playing being a hunter ( he told me to keep my head under the picnic table but no did I listen ) he felt so bad when he brought me home that he broke his bow and arrows in half. He will truly be missed. God bless 🙏🏻🙏🏻
