“ I am so shocked and saddened to hear about this, I moved away several years ago and didn't know he was sick. I worked at a bar and grill Tom used to go to, he was so fun and funny, so full of life. You will be missed Tom.

“ I truly was believing and trusting that God was going to heal you. I can not tell how sorry I am Tom. I've told Jacob and KK so many times the past few weeks that I would trade places with you if it meant they could have their dad healthy. I will say this, THANK YOU a million times for letting me be a part of their lives. It will never even be close to possible to come close to stepping into your place, but I give you my word on everything that I am, as long as I have life, I will be there for them through everything, good and bad. I also believe that last Friday morning the reunion you had with Mitchell shook heaven. Rest In Peace Tom. God's speed to you.
