“ I met Cowboy when he was a prospect for the American Breed M/C. Me and Big Mike (From Dallas) were at his house. He finally asked why us guys from Texas kept sniffing and didn't blow our nose. We told him that stuff cost to much to waste. Haha He never forgot that. He knew but was joking with us. Love ya brother, I was supposed to go first. RIP Till we meet again. Tell Kenny I love him too.

“ What's not to say about Cowboy, he was one of a kind you'll never find another like him, always treated me as one of his own, you have been taken too soon words can't describe the pain and sorrow we are all feeling. They must of needed a kind hearted badass up there may you rest in peace and watch over your loved ones.. I don't want to believe this happened but we must... RIP Cowboy much love to the whole family especially the girls
