“ So sorry for the sadness for the Austin family. I was a classmate of “Jonesy” and involved with the athletics department. An incredible athlete and amazing determination is what I remember the most. Love and prayers to all whom mourn his loss and May his celebration of life be filled with family, great stories, laughter and love. God bless

“ Jones was such a great person. Fiends in HS but separated by life happenings. He was so smart and always good humored. Many prayers and condolences to Mike, Anita and the rest of the family at this time.

Donna and I would like to reach out to everyone and give Our Deepest Sympathy! Jonesy has been a Dear Friend to me for over 40 years! My Heart feels an emptiness that will not be filled again! We all have lost a brother! All the Great Memories will be Cherished forever! RIP My Brother! We are not saying good-bye, I will instead tell you to keep a spot at the table for me and I will see you later! Hugs and Love to Everyone!
