

Vernetta Schultz

July 7, 1927 - July 7, 2013

Vernetta A. Schultz, 86, of Wesley Chapel, N.C., passed away on her birthday, Sunday (July 7, 2013), at home. She was born July 7, 1927, in Beaverville, the daughter of Charles and Victoria Arseneau Pombert.

Funeral services are today at the Chapel at Heritage Funeral Home in Matthews, N.C., with Dr. Clay Barnes, of Carmel Baptist, officiating. Private burial will be in Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery in Elwood, where Vernetta will be laid to rest alongside her husband, Francis E. Schultz.

Vernetta had been a resident of North Carolina for the past 11 years. During her working career, she devoted her life to being a registered nurse, where her love and passion for caregiving was a gift to all to whom she ministered. During her free time, she enjoyed sewing, bird watching, caring for her little dog, Maggie, and feeding the ducks.

Survivors include her daughter, Marsha Speer; son, Edward Schultz; sister, Jean Hadden; grandsons, Alec Riss and Andrew Schultz; great-granddaughters, Caroline Riss and Harper Schultz; great-grandson, Connor Riss and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one sister and four brothers.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Vernetta's name to the Humane Society of the United States, Dept. MEMIT9, 2100 L St. NW, Washington, DC 20037, or online at humanesociety.org.
