“ My prayers are with you and Veronica will be missed dearly. I worked for Veronica for a short period of time, and anyone who had known her she was a person that was easy to fall in love with. I will miss her so very much. She touched my life and for that I will always be grateful. I know that God will take better care of her than this world can. May God bless the family and give you strength to make it through this difficult time. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##sarah troupe##imported-end##

“ I just read the on-line obit of your mother, my aunt Veronica. I also noticed that my father's name was omitted from the list of deceased siblings. Was that an OOPS or was it because you don't remember him? I'm not upset, I just don't quite understand how relatives don't keep up on each other like I do... Anyway, your mom was great company and surely will be missed.

“ I just read Aunt Rita's Obituary and am sorry for your loss. Maybe you don't remember us but I was a nephew, son of Aunt Rita's brother, John Schultz, deceased 1986. From the guest book it looks like there was more than one side of the family someone wanted to forget.##imported-begin##Steve Schultz##imported-end##

“ I was sorry to learn of this sad news. She was know as "Fat" to me because that is what my mother, Anne Palinski, called her for nearly a lifetime. They were the best of friends, played basketball together as girls and they were even in each other's wedding. She and her husband, Ray, were the nicest people. I was always amazed by her love for bowling and by how much she enjoyed working in her yard. I last visited her during summer '07 and when I hugged her goodbye, I never realized it would be for the last time. I shall miss her. ##imported-begin##Annette Flanigan##imported-end##

“ We wish to express our sympathies to the family. We enjoyed visiting her last fall during a trip to Kankakee. Veronica was a girl friend of my Mother (Anne Palinski) in the 1930's. They played basketball together and Veronica stood up in my parents wedding in 1941. I grew up knowing Veronica by another nickname "Fat". She was a dear friend of ours and will be deeply missed. ##imported-begin##George & Marilyn Palinski##imported-end##

“ It was always a pleasure to see Aunt Fat - that is what we called her!

My mom gave her that nick name - I guess! Not sure why - beacuse there was not an ounce of fat on her!

We exchanged family news at Christmas time - I was very sad to hear that she had health problems & then broke her hip. She was a great family member & I have fond memories of her & Uncle Ray! ##imported-begin##Bonnie Bires##imported-end##
