“ Vicky was one of my best friends. She was always so happy and laughing all of the time. She made me see that things were not as serious as I took them. The world will be sadder without her.##imported-begin##Verna Hall##imported-end##

“ To everyone who loved Vicky Jo(oh, don't call her that, she wouldn't like it! I did i½it any way.)knows that when she was around there wasn't a peaceful moment. Really strange but I miss all the noise! She would say some pretty crazy shit, she made me and alot of other people laugh!!! i½I really miss her! I truely believe she is watching down from Heaven over all of us as she fishes with her Dad.##imported-begin##Tracey Goddard##imported-end##

“ Vicky was a very loving and funny person. I remember when I first met her through my brother and sister-in-law; Clayton and Deb Kane.I was going through alot at that time, newly divorced, single mom....but she could always make me laugh. And she treated my sons great too. ĩ½She loved kids. ĩ½Her life was way to short, but she's with her mom and dad now.Love ya Vicky,Debi###imported-begin###Debra Kane-Rocknowski###imported-end##
