“ *I wish so much to be there with you! I½ remember the last time I saw Uncle Vic was at Grandmas (Ines) funeral. I½He was so startled when he saw me because he could've sworn I was "JoAnne" (my mother). I½Love to all! “ To the family you all have my deepest sympathy. Vic was a lifelong neighbor and friend on Oak Street in Manteno.
He was a good man. My mother passed away almost 2 years ago, and of course Vic & John were at Mom's funeral. I hadn't seen Vic in quite a few years and he walked up and said "oh my little Teresa I would know you anywhere." He was a remarkable man!! God Bless you all.

“ I have always thought about you over the years and lost your address after you moved off Court St. Wish I knew last year where you were and then you could of seen some of my g children. I think alot about you and your mom and the stories she told us about when you were young. Now I am sure you will be seeing mom and grandma and everyone now. I will always love and think about you. I bring out the old pictures and remember what we all were doing at that time. Rest in Peace Vic. Love Sharon##imported-begin##Sharon i½Napier Brock##imported-end##
