“ I only met Vic once. It was many years ago up at Fence Lake. But I heard about him often. To my father, Tom Tulley, he was more than just a friend, he was a hero. Heaven has a new caretaker.

“ I was one of the nurses that took care of him before the virus. He could be so sweet and seemed like such a romancer. He was a sweet talker and loved snacks. We spent many a late evening together at the nurses station making small talk. He will be missed!!!
